Human fall flat factory radios

Has anyone else heard this. I was playing at a new factory level when I first came out and after finishing we wanted to make achievements done for him. We were looking for a radio, and in the second part of the map we heard a radio number, and then a station that was rocking!. We were so confused because we both heard it loud and clear in different areas and thought it was the last radio we couldn't find. In the end we learned that this violin song was radio, but the station that rocks thing is still a mystery. % of all players Total Achievements: 83 You must be logged in to compare these stats with your own 94.3% No Escape Fall and Rebirth once 81.6% Leap of Faith Complete Mansion 72.0% Choo Choo!
